If there is ever an item you want and LTPL does not own a copy, we can often order it in from a neighboring library. This is a free service and depending on demand, items normally arrive in about a week. If the library needs to contact you to notify you that something you've requested has arrived, how would you like to be contacted? Phone Email
(Please check only one)

All users receive a default PIN of 1234. This PIN is used for logging into our public computers and our online catalog. If you would like to choose a more memorable PIN please do so online or ask a library staff member.

By signing below you certify that the information on this form is correct. In doing so you accept responsibility for the materials borrowed on the library card issued from this application. Responsibility for the choice of materials borrowed rests with the person(s) whose signature(s) appear on the line below and not with the library system or its staff.
