Join us as we discuss our Community Read book "Underground Airlines" by Ben H. Winters.

Naturalization Indexing Program

October 17, 1:00 pm

We need you to help the Archives of Michigan index Michigan's naturalization records!

The Archives of Michigan is pleased to announce the launch of a digitization and indexing project to make naturalization records from nearly 70 Michigan counties freely available online. In a partnership with FamilySearch, and with the support of the Michigan Genealogical Council, the Archives of Michigan is asking you to help transcribe key genealogical information from the records. Once completed, the collection – including both the images and index – will be freely available only at Seeking Michigan.

Kris is going to show us how we can get involved to help with this project. It is a way of giving back to the genealogy community.

Genealogy Lock-In

October 27, 6:00 pm

The "Do's and Don'ts of Cemetery Research"

Presented by "Gail Hershenson"

Doors open at 5:30 PM, presentation will start at 6:00 PM

We will have the following free databases for the evening:

Medicare 101

October 14, 1:00 pm

Presented by the Area Agency on Aging 1-B

Are you new to Medicare or wanting to get the most of your Medicare benefits? Come to the Medicare 101 presentation and learn the ABCD's of Medicare. We will discuss Original Medicare, Medigap Supplemental Insurance, Medicare Advantage, and Prescription drug coverage. We will also learn about programs to help with the costs of Medicare. You don't want to miss this!

Lego My Library

October 19, 4:30 pm

Stop by and build something fun at the library! We'll have Legos, K'nex and other materials to build with and everyone can make their own creation, or work together to create something inspired by the monthly theme. All ages are welcome - we even have Baby Blocks! No RSVP required.

Genealogy Roundtable

October 20, 2:00 pm

All are welcome to come share their ideas, show genealogy treasures or tell us about a brick wall that they have encountered. We all have a lot of experiences to share with each other!

Road Trip to Woodmere Cemetery

October 28, 2017, 10:00 am

We will be meeting at Woodmere Cemetery.

9400 W Fort St, Detroit, MI 48209

Woodmere has remained one of Detroit's most beautiful treasures, where visitors can take a historical step back into time. From the very rich to the very poor, many thousands have chosen Woodmere Cemetery to be their final resting place.

Gail Hershenson will be giving us a tour of this beautiful and historical cemetery. She has been a volunteer at Woodmere for many years and has given numerous tours.

Also free black and white printing.

Bringing a bagged lunch is recommended.

Registration is required and will begin on October 3. Click here for more information and to register.

Food Safety for the Holidays

October 30, 6:30 pm

Everyone is looking to feed their family and friends delicious foods during the holiday season, but we also need to keep those foods safe. Robin Danto, M.S., R.D. will talk about general food safety, why holiday celebrations can increase the risk of food borne illness, and how to reduce those risks so that everyone can have a safer, healthier holiday season.

Robin is a Food Safety and Nutrition Educator in Oakland County through the Michigan State Extension.

Preschool Storytime

Wednesday & Thursday mornings at 10:30 am

Join Miss Jocelyn for stories, songs, bubbles, and lots of fun! For children ages 1 - 6 and their families.

Qigong & You

Wednesdays at 6:00 pm

Qigong, a 5,000 year old system referred to as an "Ancient Chinese Secret of Health & Longevity" uses simple movement, breathing technique, and mental focus to cultivate internal energy. The class focuses on the power of Qigong for health, self-healing and longevity. An excellent way to manage stress, find balance and inner-harmony. Each class ends with a guided meditation. Classes are taught by David Tharp, a certified Qigong Teacher, and are free to the public.
