Update on our Stages of Reopening

We are pleased to announce that LTPL is now in Stage 4 of our planned Stages for reopening. This means the library building is open for Grab & Go limited visits. You can visit for up to 30 minutes, to pick up and check out library materials. We just ask that you only touch library items you intend to take with you!

Please be patient and flexible with us; thank you for your continued support and understanding.

For more information and updates, visit our website: ltpl.org and follow us on social media.
